

Incoming students

International students visiting Department of Education, Faculty of Education Masaryk University within Erasmus program can choose subjects of their study from the following portfolio (below).

More information about others subject in English are here.

Czech Educational System

The aim of the subject is teach students to interpret new knowledge; apply new knowledge and skills in practice; interpret current educational issues; adopt thoughtful stances towards the issues studied and use new knowledge reasonably to further own development.

More information about the subject can be found here.

The subject si taught by Mgr. Kateřina Lojdová, PhD.

Czech Educational System Seminar

At the end of the course the student will be able to: – understand the basic terminology of the subject – explain the relationships and connections between particular aspects of the subject – use the information acquired in the subject to expand one's own perspective of the issues studied – create a database of basic technical terms and their mutual relationships – present points of view well-argued on the basis of newly acquired knowledge.

More information about the subject can be found here.

The subject si taught by Mgr. Kateřina Lojdová, PhD.

Visiting of Schools

Main objectives of the course are to give to ERASMUS students initial experiential orientation in current Czech school system and educational arrangements, to confirm their vocational motivation and fecit complex (rational, skill also postural) springboard for pedagogic disciplines. At the end of the course students should be able to: understand and explain relationships between teacher and students. – use the information concerning the education for personal professional motivation; – create the image of the Czech elementary education; – interpret information learned on basis of observation in primary schools; – understand the basic terminology of the subject – present reasonable arguments within the boundaries of the subject including searching and finding further interdisciplinary links – apply new knowledge and skills in practice.

More information about the subject can be found here.
Watch the video about this subject.

Study materials can be found here.

The subject si taught by Mgr.Radek Pospíšil.