

Ph.D. Courses

Courses

- Theoretical and methodological basis: Philosophy of Education, Methodology of Scientific Work, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods of Educational Research
- Complementary courses: Modern Educational Theory, Educational Psychology, Current Questions in Educational Theory.
- Specialised courses – optional (Students select one course from each group):
 - Group A courses (focused at selected disciplines of educational theory): Contemporary Topics in Specialised Didactics, Theory of Family Upbringing, Environmental Education, Introduction to Teaching as a Profession, Social Pedagogy, Primary Pedagogy, School Management.
 - Group B courses (focused at selected problems connected to the most frequent dissertation topics): Recent Problems of School Curriculum, Theory and Practice of Teaching Methods, Activity, Independence and Creativity in Pupils, Pupil and Class Diagnostics, Alternative Approaches in Education and Upbringing.
- Other courses: Foreign Language 1. Foreign Language 2, Professional Orientation in the Field of Study, Doctoral Dissertation.

For further information, please visit <http://www.ped.muni.cz/en/study/doctoral-study-phd-degree>